12:00 – 1:00 PM CST

NEED GT ZOOM PLATFORM LINKS HERE.

There are many times when lawyers wish the contracts they were litigating said something more or different—times when cases should have been easier to win or avoided altogether but were not. This presentation addresses how to more effectively prepare contracts to protect your client in the event of future disputes. Receive in-the-trenches experience, case law highlights, and contract preparation and litigation strategies.

Presenters, David B. Weinstein and Christopher Torres, will offer practice pointers derived from years of working together on complex, high-stakes litigation.
