

Appeals & Legal Issues

Greenberg Traurig's Appeals & Legal Issues Group comprises appellate lawyers with deep experience handling appeals in almost every area of the civil law and white-collar criminal law – more particularly in cases addressing general commercial law, federal and state constitutional law, environmental law, labor law, white collar criminal law, tax law, First Amendment law, real estate law, civil rights law, class action law, oil and gas law, power law, intellectual property and patent law, health care law, products liability and medical device law, voting rights and election law, insurance law, tax law, and administrative and regulatory law. In addition to handling client appeals, the GT Appeals & Legal Issues Group coordinates with trial counsel to help enhance trial court records and advance the potential for success on appeal.

OUR WORK INCLUDES:

- Appeals in federal and state trial and appellate courts
- Dispositive motions, jury charge preparation, and general trial support
- U.S. Supreme Court practice
- Amicus curiae briefs
- Arbitration appeals
- Administrative proceedings and appeals

780+
Federal Circuit
Cases Handled

1400+
State Appellate
Cases Handled

2100+
Appellate
Cases Handled

Appeals & Legal Issues

Our team takes advantage of a broad platform with more than 80 lawyers devoting all or much of their practices to appellate matters in Atlanta, Austin, Boston, Washington, D.C., New York, Chicago, Denver, Houston, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, Miami, Tampa, Philadelphia, Phoenix, and beyond – in total, 34 key centers of business and government throughout the United States. In recent years, team members have litigated before the U.S. Supreme Court, the highest courts in many states, all 13 federal circuit courts, including the Federal Circuit, and many states' lower appellate courts.

We combine forum-knowledgeable lawyers with a proven track record of handling the legal issues involved in our clients' appeals.

