September 2019

Reminder: Oct. 9, 2019, Deadline Approaches for New York Sexual Harassment Prevention Training

New York employers have until Wednesday, Oct. 9, 2019, to train each of their employees on sexual harassment prevention. The training must be conducted annually thereafter, and must satisfy all of the statutory requirements for content and interaction. Employers who have not yet conducted training should do so as soon as possible.

For more information, including training parameters, see our October 2018 GT Alert, UPDATE: New Anti-Sexual Harassment Compliance Mandates for New York State and New York City in Full Swing.

Contact your Greenberg Traurig attorney to schedule training or for guidance on compliance with these training requirements and related employment laws.
