CARES Act: Transitional Assistance Available to Companies Based on Number of Employees

On March 27, 2020, Congress passed and President Trump signed into the law the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, which provides more than $2 trillion in economic assistance to those affected by the Coronavirus. This follows passage on March 6 of the Coronavirus Preparedness and Response Supplemental Appropriations Act (Pub.L. 116-123) and on March 18 of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (Pub.L. 116-127). Taken together, these new laws establish new programs for companies seeking assistance in meeting payroll and other obligations in dealing with this public health emergency. The table below provides an outline of new assistance programs based on the number of employees in a company.

Number of Employees	Type of Assistance	Amount; Basic terms	Other Notable Features
