

Aaron Harlow joins Greenberg Traurig in London

Insolvency lawyer Aaron Harlow has joined Greenberg Traurig in London as a shareholder after sixteen years with Shoosmiths.

Harlow advises banks, asset-based lenders, insolvency practitioners, and company directors in connection with all aspects of corporate insolvency. He has been especially active in UK retail insolvencies.

His cases include Wilko, Monsoon Accessorise, Cath Kidston, Coast, Karen Millen, Lendy, Wellesley Finance, ASA Resource Group Plc and the Great Annual Savings Company.

John Houghton, co-vice chair of Greenberg Traurig's global restructuring and bankruptcy practice, said, "Aaron's extensive experience in corporate insolvency perfectly complements our existing capabilities, positioning us as a leading global advisor for complex distress situations.

"We now offer comprehensive services across distressed and special situation lending, mainstream restructuring, and formal insolvencies," said Houghton.

"Together with Luke Lado, who joined in 2023, bringing experience in direct lending and leverage finance, we are well-placed to deliver unparalleled support to clients navigating challenging financial situations."

Aaron Harlow,
Greenberg Traurig