A zealous, tireless advocate, he learns each client's business inside and out, and focuses on solving the immediate problem while weighing the impact on the client's other cases, day-to-day operation, and reputation.

In addition to being a highly sought after first-chair litigator, Scott is known as a mentor and a leader in the Los Angeles office and across the firm. Throughout his career at Greenberg Traurig, which spans 18 years, he has provided assignments to associates that further their growth.
